

Total Event Protection

Distinctive. Choice.

Our Services

JLT offers comprehensive insurance and risk solutions that address both general and acute risks of all types of international and local events including performances, festivals, concerts and community fairs.

No event is too large or too small for JLT, as our focus is not on volume but the superior quality of our services.

JLT's established products and services have helped event managers manage unforeseen events losses and offer a safer business environment for their financial stakeholders.

Flexible choice in standard or specialist coverage

We offer coverage of all these risks including those not covered by standard insurance policies.

Cancellation Abandonment - including Adverse Weather

Non Appearance

Public Liability

In addition to these standard covers, JLT is able to offer specialist event policies to assist all parties involved in staging events.

These include:

- Communicable Diseases Coverage
- Terrorism & Threat of Terrorism

Tailored to the events industry

JLT's established track record in insuring major events around the world enables us to develop products and policy wordings that distinctly match the unique needs of the Australian Events Industry and address critical issues in this region.

Total protection for any event

JLT can provide specialised solutions to ensure your events are not only well covered, but the inherent risks present in staging events are well managed.

Timely, competitive quotations

JLT has a specialist facility for event risks in Australia which enables us to generate price indicative quotes on events based on proposed budgets for the benefit of our clients. In some cases, we can generate a quote instantly. Plus, you can leverage on our negotiation strength and secure the most cost effective solution for your event.
